

Learn Russian in authentic
North settings

Autumn School of Russian Language and Culture

September 21 – October 09, 2015

NArFU International Office:
international@narfu.ru

Web-site: www.narfu.ru/en

WHAT TO EXPECT FROM THE COURSE:

- Russian Language environment;
- Individual approach for each student – level that fits one's specific needs and capabilities;
- Wide range of topics including specifically developed lexical and grammatical material;
- Unique teaching technique (intermediate language + authentic language environment);
- Highly-qualified teachers with strong background in teaching Russian as a foreign language.

...AND AFTER THE COURSE:

- Exciting excursions (Russian wooden architecture, Pomors traditions and art etc.)
- Extensive program of concerts, workshops, discussion groups
- Insight into the life of a great Russian University

Interdisciplinary program consists of:

- Language Module
- Arctic Region Studies Module
- Cultural Module

Credits: 5 ECTS

Participation Package for Quota Scholarship Applicants:

- Tuition Fee waiver
- Accommodation costs: 1500 Rub at NArFU dormitory
- Transfer, medical insurance and part of the cultural program at the expense of the participants

Documents to be provided to Rossotrudnichestvo Office:

- Application Form
- Motivation Letter
- Passport copy *
- Education certificate copy *

* Documents have to be translated into Russian language, notarized